SERMON NOTES

Title: What A Friend We Have In Jesus

Passage: 1 Peter 4:8

PRAY FOR OUR CHURCH (EFCLA)

- Pray for Sunday School Teachers: The new Sunday school season just started. Pray that the Lord would move people to join Sunday school. Pray that the Spirit would fill the teachers of our adult and children's Sunday school. Through Sunday school, His people would be ready for all kinds of good works.
- Pray for Happiness Groups: Pray for the preparation of Happiness Group. Pray that the Lord would raise up enough leaders for each group. Pray also for those seekers.
- Pray for the Sick. Pray that the Lord would heal those who are sick and restore their health and strength.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

- Pray for the Drought. The American West, including California, is suffering from severe drought. In California, some farmland is forced to fallow, and wildfire has burned down over three hundred and thirty thousand acres of forest. Pray that God would give us sufficient rainfall in this year's rain season to alleviate the drought.
- Pray for Mali. Mali is a Muslim nation where only two percent of the population is Christian. In the past, Christians have been subject to violent persecution, and the threat of attack still lingers over believers. Being a Christian in Mali means living with constant pressure from religious extremists, family, and the community – especially for those who have converted from Islam. Pray that God will comfort and protect the believers in Mali and bring His good news and the peace of Christ to the nation.
