SERMON NOTES

Title: Thanksgiving To Thanksliving

Passage: 1 Thessalonians 5:18

PRAY FOR OUR CHURCH (EFCLA)

- Pray Student Ministries. Pr. Sam Ning recently reached out students in Citrus College by Alpha course. Pray that many students would come to the Lord through this outreach. Pray that the Lord would raise up leaders to work with Pr. Sam to train and minister to those students.
- Pray for Outreach Ministries. Three people will receive their baptism, and one his confirmation in the worship service of Nov. 27. Pray that the Lord would strengthen their faith. Also, they would receive their equipping, grow in their faith, and be ready to reach out to their family and friends soon.
- Pray for the Sick. Pray that the Lord would heal those who are sick and restore their health and strength.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

- Pray for Central Asia Ministries. Rev. Daniel Chang, a missionary to Central Asia that we support, reported that in Kyrgyzstan, inflation and anti-pandemic measures result in the cost of his relief ministries skyrocketing, but the number of needy people increase significantly. Pray that the Lord would provide our financial need for the relief ministries. Pray that we may share the gospel, which saves life, with people while providing their physical needs.
- Pray for Bhutan. Violence against Christians in Bhutan is on the rise. Buddhism is an essential part of Bhutanese culture. Anyone who converts to Christianity is considered to bring shame upon their family and is put under intense pressure to return to Buddhism. Bhutan's government does not officially recognize any Christian churches, so gathering to worship is illegal. Pray for religious freedom in Bhutan. Pray that believers who have been disowned by their families will find love and acceptance with new communities of faith.
