SERMON NOTES

Title: Reflections of 2022

Passage: Luke 2:8-20

PRAY FOR OUR CHURCH (EFCLA)

- Pray for Pastors and Elders of our Church. May God give pastors/elders a good health, a good family relationship, live in holiness every day, and not be stumbled by the temptation of money, pornography, and power; have a healthy psychological state, and stress can Resolve, don't let negative emotions affect their service; don't forget the original calling, and love God with all your strength every day.
- Pray for Just Baptized. Pray for those who have received baptism and confirmation on 11/27. Pray that the Lord would strengthen their faith. Also, they would receive their equipping, grow in their faith, and be ready to reach out to their family and friends soon.
- Pray for the Sick. Pray that the Lord would heal those who are sick and restore their health and strength.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

- Pray for Uruguay. Uruguay has a relatively high standard of living and social welfare system, but there are still economic problems to be resolved, such as low economic growth rate, and inflation. In addition, the Uruguayan government has legalized abortion, same-sex marriage, and marijuana smoking. Let us pray for Uruguay, asking God to enable the Uruguayan government to formulate policies and systems that are in line with God's will.
- Pray for Russian-Ukrainian War. The Russian-Ukrainian war has been going on for nine months. Inflation and expensive electricity bills caused by the war have made people's lives more difficult. Also produced a large number of refugees into Poland. Pray to God to stop the war, prevent larger conflicts and weapon upgrades, so that people can return to normal life. Pray that the people on both sides can know the Lord, seek the Lord, and rely on the Lord, and use the local churches and missionaries to become sons of peace, testify to the Lord, and glorify the Lord.
