SERMON NOTES

Title: Empowered by the Spirit

Passage: Joel 2:28-29

PRAY FOR OUR CHURCH (EFCLA)

- Pray for the outreach ministry of Happiness Group. Starting from 3/3, the Spring Happiness Group has launched. Please pray for the love, faith, unity and humble service of the co-workers, pray for the work of the Holy Spirit in the meetings, and ask the Lord to add His chosen people to the happiness group.
- Pray for Easter gatherings. 3/29 is Good Friday Service, and 3/31 is Easter Sunday. Pray that brothers and sisters will prepare their hearts, think again about the suffering and resurrection of Jesus Christ for us, and remind us of our grateful hearts and hope for resurrection. There are baptism classes in the Harvest LA and Children Congregation. We pray that seekers can know the truth, meet Jesus, and be baptized to become children of God.
- Pray for the Mandarin-speaking student group. This is the youngest group in the Mandarin Congregation. It is composed of some Mandarin-speaking middle school and high school students, including Christians and seekers. Pray that co-workers will serve them with wisdom and love, and pray that these young people will not only have fun and find friends in the gathering, but more importantly, learn about faith and build a new life in Christ.
- Pray for the Sick. Pray that the Lord would heal those who are sick and restore their health and strength.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

- Pray for the Maldives. The Maldives is strictly controlled by Islamic law and is one of the countries in the world that severely persecutes Christianity. It is illegal to establish a local church, and there is no translation of the entire Bible in the local mother tongue. Therefore, under strict state surveillance, Christian migrant workers can hardly maintain their faith life. Let us pray together for the Maldives. May the gospel of truth spread to every place and transform this land.
