SERMON NOTES

Title: Gospel in the Kings

Passage: 2 Kings 19:14-19, 32-36

PRAY FOR OUR CHURCH (EFCLA)

- Pray for more committed coworkers in church ministry. After the pandemic, people are flocking to the church, and new friends are visiting every week, but there is still a shortage of coworkers for pastoral care. Pray that the Lord raises up the next generation of leaders and not only focus on imparting knowledge but also emphasize life-on-life discipleship. May every leader disciple new members with the life of Jesus, and may every brother and sister in EFCLA love one another with the love of Jesus.
- Pray for the preparation of the Happiness Group in the second half of the year. As the Happiness Group is about to begin, we ask the Lord to bring BEST and prepare the hearts of the coworkers for the invitation process. May the Lord grant us wisdom, so we do not give up easily, and help us learn from failures, to stand up once again and win souls for the Lord.
- Pray for the Sick. Pray that the Lord would heal those who are sick and restore their health and strength.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

- Pray for peace in the countries recently affected by natural disasters. This includes the United States (hurricane), Japan (earthquake), China (landslides and floods), the Philippines (typhoon), Greece (wildfires), and Turkey (wildfires). We ask You to grant peace and strength to the people of these nations, and may Your protection continue to surround them! Lord, we pray for comfort for the hearts of those affected, healing for the injured, and wisdom and courage for the rescue workers as they rebuild the homes destroyed by these disasters. May all necessary resources reach them smoothly.
- Pray for peace in the Middle East. Pray for peace in the Middle East. Pray for the relationship between Iran and Israel, asking the Lord to stop any potential outbreak of war, and may God's will be fully accomplished between Israel and Iran. May the Prince of Peace, Lord Jesus, walk boldly among them, providing opportunities for peaceful dialogue to resolve conflicts. We ask You to protect all the people, granting them hope and comfort, and allowing them to know more about salvation.
