SERMON NOTES

Title: Trusting the Ultimate King

Passage: Psalm 72

PRAY FOR OUR CHURCH (EFCLA)

- Pray for EM who are ready to Baptize. Pray for the youth of the English congregation who will be baptized on Thanksgiving Sunday. Thank the Lord for their salvation at such a young age. Ask God to help them establish a clear understanding of the truth, strengthen their faith to follow Jesus, transform their lives, and make their lives a beautiful testimony.
- Pray for who will be baptized recently. The current Happiness Group has concluded, and some brothers and sisters will be baptized on Thanksgiving Sunday. Pray that God strengthens their faith, equips them after baptism, helps them grow in truth, and prepares them to serve God and lead others to believe in the Lord. Also, pray for those who have already made their commitments to Christ, asking God to move them to continue coming to church so that they may be baptized and become disciples of Jesus.
- Pray for Prayer Ministries. Pray that the Lord would raise up His church to devote in prayer. The Lord would revive His church through prayer. Pray that besides daily personal prayer, everyone would also pray in groups at least once a week.
- Pray for the Sick. Pray that the Lord would heal those who are sick and restore their health and strength.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD

- Pray for the Global conflict. Please pray for the relationships among Israel, Palestine, Iran, Lebanon, and other Middle Eastern countries, as well as for the Russia-Ukraine war and the tensions between North and South Korea. We must also pray for global international relations, asking God to grant wisdom to the leaders of all nations to resolve their differences peacefully. May God protect and watch over the nations, using His loving hand to stop all wars, comfort the suffering people, and heal their physical, emotional, and spiritual wounds.
